The story of BALLYMALOE FOODS

Rosaleen, Yasmin and Maxine Hyde.

GOING FROM PRODUCING RELISH IN HER KITCHEN FOR LOCAL SHOPS AND RESTAURANTS, TO MOVING INTO PURPOSELY-BUILT KITCHENS IN LITTLE ISLAND, YASMIN HYDE'S COMPANY, BALLYMALOE FOODS, HAS QUICKLY GROWN INTO A VERSATILE BRAND, LOVED BY MANY.

Myrrtle and Ivan Allen opened the doors of their home Ballymaloe House as a restaurant in 1946. The house then became a country house hotel, taking in guests from around the world. Myrtle devised a recipe to preserve the delicious tomatoes, which Ivan grew locally in East Cork, so they could be enjoyed all year round – and Ballymaloe Original Relish was born.

Yasmin, Myrtle's third daughter, saw the love and adoration guests of the restaurant had for this tomato relish. She decided to start a business of her own in 1990 producing it for sale in shops and restaurants.

The company has grown over the years and now sells to both retail and foodservice companies in Ireland and abroad. The product range has expanded to include other relishes, pasta sauces, traditional roasting and meat sauces, mayonnaise and salad dressings.

At Ballymaloe Foods, we are committed to producing great tasting, high quality sauces through careful ingredient selection and cooking in gentle, traditional methods. We always avoid adding artificial additives or preservatives to our products.
